Redondo Beach Police Department's Vision Statement

WE ARE THE COMMUNITY -

LEADING THE WAY IN LAW ENFORCEMENT

NEIGHBORHOOD WATCH

Is one of the most effective and least costly ways to prevent crime and reduce fear in the community by forging bonds between area residents and local law enforcement.

DUI—Not An Option

Recreational use of marijuana became legal under California law effective January 1, 2018.

But driving under the influence of marijuana is a still crime in California under Vehicle Code 23152\(e\) VC. In fact, law enforcement is likely to devote even more energy to enforcing California's marijuana DUI laws, since "stoned driving" is expected to be more of a problem following the legalization of recreational marijuana. You violate DUI - drugs, like marijuana, if you drive a motor vehicle while impaired by marijuana, to the extent that you are unable to drive with the caution of a sober person using ordinary care.
